The President's Corner

Hey everyone!

It's been a hot summer and I'm looking forward to fall and cooler weather! I want to thank Ben Crow for speaking to the club in August. Looking for coins in bank rolls is a coin collecting strategy that many of us have long since overlooked. As a kid, I used to go to the bank and purchase $2 rolls of nickels. This is how I populated my nickel collection for several years. With the US Mint's creation of many different types of circulation coins in recent years, finding varieties and errors through roll searching has become a viable way to collect modern coins. Thanks again for your insight Ben!

The Jersey 2004 £1 Commemorative Banknote

The Island of Jersey had a unique way of remembering the 800th anniversary of their self-determination in the form of a £1 banknote. The new notes were issued from Monday 10th May, 2004.

The printing of the £1 banknote is divided into two main areas, each drawing on elements of the anniversary. The note features Mont Orgueil Castle as the main image and also includes the 1204-2004 logo, featured above the castle. The printing includes the crest of Jersey, featuring the three lions; a detail from the original charter of 1341 confirming the island's privileges by Edward III; the silver-gilt mace, presented to the Bailiff as a perpetual reminder of his fidelity to King Charles II; the original seal that was granted to the Bailiwick of Jersey in 1279 by King Edward I and medieval figures capturing the revelry of the anniversary celebrations.

Further features of the new banknote include the use of gold ink for the denomination in the top right corner; the printing of the commemorative logo in red and gold and the inclusion of a three character numbering prefix 'J8C' to signify Jersey 800.

Nigel Quérée Chairman of the 1204-2004 celebrations said: 'We are very grateful to the Finance & Economics Committee for supporting the celebrations through the issue of this commemorative £1 note. The note will act as a reminder of this special year and we are sure that many will be kept as a souvenir, by locals and visitors alike. We are issuing a special presentation pack, which will be available on our website, of the low numbered notes for collectors.'

The Jersey pound that commemorates the 800th anniversary of the relationship between Jersey and the British crown. Its front side contains two treecreepers, a Jersey 1204-2004 overprint near the watermark area, the Coat of Arms of Jersey with the three lions passant guardant, and Queen Elizabeth II. Its back side contains the Jersey 1204-2004 overprint, a mace, a coin, a bugler, and a view of Mont Orgueil castle. The note has a solid security thread and a watermark of a Jersey cow head. Its dimensions are 128 mm by 65 mm.

Ben Crow Receives ANA Educational Award

Kurt Springfield (L), Madison County Coin Club Board Member, presents Ben Crow with an ANA Educational Award for his meeting presentation on searching contemporary coin rolls and pocket change for US Quarter finds—an outstanding approach to enjoying the hunt while paying only face value! Wayne Koger

"Numismatics, like some aspects of astronomy and natural history, remains a branch of learning in which the amateur can still do valuable work, and it is on the great collecting public, or rather on that part of which is interested in the subject at a scientific level, that the progress of numismatic science largely depends."

Philip Grierson - Professor of Numismatics, University of Cambridge
