

Madison County Coin Club of Huntsville, Alabama

Volume 11, Issue 4

July 2011

The President's Corner

Last month's meeting was very informal with a small attendance for our June potluck and bourse, but we had a good time talking with each other. The hot weather may have kept some home, but if you were absent then you were missed

Our next meeting will have an interesting program by VP Mike Ford on "Gold Dollars". Mike does a good job with his presentations so plan to come and hear Mike.

We have about 25 10th Anniversary Club Medals to sell, so if you have not bought yours yet see Richard at the next meeting. We need you support. Thanks.

See you at the next meeting July 25, 2011.

Sincerely,
Bob Jaques

The Native American Dollar Coins

Beginning in 2009, the United States Mint began minting and issuing $1 coins featuring designs celebrating the important contributions made by Indian tribes and individual Native Americans to the history and development of the United States.

The obverse (heads side) design remains the central figure of the "Sacagawea" design first produced in 2000 and contains the inscriptions LIBERTY and IN GOD WE TRUST.

The reverse (tails) design changes each year to celebrate an important contribution of Indian tribes, or individual Native Americans, and contain the inscriptions $1 and UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Like the Presidential $1 Coins, the Native American $1 Coins maintain their distinctive edge and golden color and feature edge-lettering of the year, mint mark and E PLURIBUS UNUM.

The 2009 Native American $1 Coin reverse features a Native American woman planting seeds in a field of corn, beans and squash.

The 2011 Native American $1 Coin reverse features the hands of the Supreme Sachem Ousamequin Massasoit and Governor John Carver, symbolically offering the ceremonial peace pipe after the initiation of the first formal written peace alliance between the Wampanoag tribe and the European settlers. The additional inscription is WAMPANOAG TREATY 1621.

The 2010 Native American $1 Coin reverse features an image of the Hiawatha Belt with five arrows bound together and the additional inscriptions HAUDENOSAUNEE and GREAT LAW OF PEACE.

The Club's 10 Year Anniversary Medal

The club had medals minted for its ten year anniversary. The medals are 1.75 inches in diameter and come in nickel, copper, and a golden material. If interested in acquiring a set, please contact Richard Jozefiak.
