The President's Corner

The March meeting of our coin club will meet this Monday the 25th, our usual 4th Monday. Beginning in April, we will start meeting on the 4th Tuesday. This is a result of the Senior Center not being open on the 4th Monday to groups. The Senior Center is open Tuesday nights for BINGO resulting in us moving to the 4th Tuesday. The Senior Center is requesting that we park on the North side of the building for the meetings.

Please join us for Richard's presentation What to Expect at the GNA 49th Anniversary Show this Monday

"Numismatics, like some aspects of astronomy and natural history, remains a branch of learning in which the amateur can still do valuable work, and it is on the great collecting public, or rather on that part of which is interested in the subject at a scientific level, that the progress of numismatic science largely depends."

ANA Road Show makes stop at Georgia Numismatic Association show

The American Numismatic Association Road Show will make its next stop at the Georgia Numismatic Association Coin Show 49th Coin & Currency Show, from April 19-21 at the Northwest Georgia Trade & Convention Center in Dalton, Ga.

The ANA Road Show gives members and collectors around the country an opportunity to see some of the most impressive items from the ANA's Edward C. Rochette Money Museum and the Dwight N. Manley Numismatic Library's Mobile Archives. Collectors also can attend ANA Money Talks presentations and learn more about ANA educational programs.

"As this lineup of exhibits and talks demonstrates, the ANA Road Show is a major outreach effort to let collectors around the country experience some of the ANA's coolest items and learn more about educational programs the ANA offers to collectors," said ANA Executive Director Jeff Shevlin.

The following items will be on display in the ANA Road Show, located in the GNA's special exhibits area:

The McDermott/Bebbee 1913 Liberty Head

"V" Nickel: This famous coin is one of five 1913 "V" nickels that were struck under mysterious circumstances at the Philadelphia Mint. This piece is from the ANA Money Museum collection and ranks as one of the most valuable of all U.S. coins.

1804 Dollar: Known as "The King of U.S. Coins," the 1804 dollar is extremely rare, with only 15 known examples. The Idler/Beebe specimen was donated to the ANA by Aubrey and Adeline Beebe in 1991.

Famous Errors: This exhibit acts as a highlight reel of some of the most notable numismatic bloopers, including the 1955 doubled-die Lincoln cent, the classic 1937 D "three legged" buffalo nickel, the 1955 doubled-die Lincoln cent, the 2004 Wisconsin "extra leaf" quarter and the 2007-2009 "godless" dollars. All of these coins feature errors that are easily visible to the naked eye – no need for magnification to see these mistakes – making them popular collector items and curiosity pieces.

Paper Currency in Georgia

The story of paper currency in Georgia begins in 1735, almost immediately after the founding of the colony in 1732 by James Oglethorpe, on the British pound sterling standard. This exhibit will show the fascinating evolution of Georgia paper currency from the Revolution through modern Federal Reserve notes issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, including notes from the private banking era, the Civil War and the National Bank period.

ANA Mobile Archives

The ANA Mobile Archives lets the public see and hold pieces of numismatic history, including the ANA will present the archives and papers of Frank Gasparro, former chief engraver of the United States Mint. Sitting down with an ANA staff member, visitors will be able to view historic artifacts and papers stored in protective cases and covers.

The ANA staff will present the following Money Talks on Saturday, April 20:

- "Adding Value to ANA" by ANA Executive Director Jeff Shevlin at 11 a.m.
- "U.S. Mint Chief Engraver Frank Gasparro: His Personal Archives and Sketches" by ANA Marketing & Communications Manager RyAnne Scott at noon
- "A House Divided: Money of the Civil War" by Money Museum Curator Doug Mudd at 3 p.m.

"We embrace the opportunity to have the ANA bring collections and educational resources to our show, and we strongly feel attendees will enjoy seeing some of the rarities they typically wouldn't get a chance to see in Georgia," said Greg Ison, president of the GNA board.

The GNA Coin Show is the largest spring show in the southeast, with more than 300 tables and 500 dealers, more than 60 collector exhibits, on-site grading, and a program for young numismatists that will be held April 20. For details on the show, go to www.gamoney.org.

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. The ANA helps its 27,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of education and outreach programs.
