June 2012

The President's Corner

WOW! Our Club did it! Thanks to all of you who participated in the ANA 2012 National Coin Week Trivia Challenge our Club won first place in the whole country.

We won a 2012 Proof 1/4 oz gold coin plus $100 in ANA money.

To be fair to all club members, we will auction off the gold coin at the next meeting. The base price will be whatever Charles Cataldo would pay for it next Monday, June 25th.

Since we missed a May meeting, be sure to be at our next meeting. This is our annual June bourse and pot luck night. So, please bring your coins to sell and some food to share.

We can discuss any coin issues you want. I have missed seeing each of you and talking coins.

See you at the next meeting on Monday, June 25th.

Sincerely,

Bob

Club Wins the 2012 National Coin Week Club Trivia Challenge

The Madison County Coin Club was named the winner in the National Coin Week trivia challenge. The trivia challenge tested the knowledge of ANA clubs. The 20-question challenge included questions that required extensive research. Our club took first place in the club trivia challenge and received a 2012 $10 American Eagle quarter ounce proof coin and $100 ANA Club Bucks.

Thirty ANA clubs submitted answers for the challenge; the Northside Coin Club (Colo.) won the second-place prize, a 2012 United States Mint America the Beautiful Quarters Silver Proof Set and 50 Club Bucks; other prizes were also awarded.

The theme for the event, held April 15-21, was "Change In Money: Cowries to Credit Cards." Activities focused on innovations throughout money's history. The ANA created a video scavenger hunt challenging participants to find answers and collect objects.

The ANA also has a Facebook photo album of National Coin Week events from around the nation. Members are encouraged to email photos of their National Coin Week Activities to ncw@money.org

ANA District Rep- AL

The Madison County Coin Club, AL participated in the ANA's National Coin Week during the month of April.

Mr. Harold Fears (L) and Mr. Robert (Bob) Jaques were each presented with an American Numismatic Association (ANA) National Coin Week Medal of Appreciation at a MCCC monthly meeting.

MintMark is the American Numismatic Association's quarterly newsletter for member clubs and the Club Representative Program. The current issue features tons of information on National Coin Week, including what many ANA members did in their own communities as well as the results of the Club Trivia Challenge and Treasure Hunt. Additionally, this issue includes information the ANA's push for a World War I collectable coin, a look at a penny drop held to benefit YN's, a feature on the Las Vegas Numismatic Society celebrating its 55th anniversary, and much more.

During the month of April, the Madison County Coin Club had a coin exhibit in honor of National Coin Week at the Madison Public Library, City of Madison, Alabama. The exhibit showed U.S. coins, paper money and medals, along with a number of coin books.

Some Scenes from the Last Meeting

Richard Goes to Dalton

Richard went to the Georgia Numismatic Association Show in Dalton, Georgia from April 27-29. There he won first and third places in the competitive exhibits. His first place winning exhibit was "Creating the MCCC 10th Anniversary / 100th Meeting Three Medal Set" and his third place winning exhibit was "Official Alaska Statehood Medals 1959 - 2009." He was also elected a GNA Governor, and will become the new GNA Secretary. Congratulations, Richard on a job well done.

Richard mans the ANA Membership table at the GNA show.
