The President's Corner

Last month was an interesting meeting because someone at the Senior Center locked us out of the building. Since the meeting was a carry-in meal and bourse night, those of us who came decided to have an impromptu picnic. We did and it was pleasant. I have assurances from the Senior Center that will not happen again.

We will have another good program this month when Richard Jozefiak will talk about "Official State of Alaska Silver Proof Medals 1989 to Today".

Avoid the heat of the day and be sure to attend our next meeting in the cool room at the Senior Center next Monday, July 23rd.

Sincerely,

Bob

Madison County Coin Club First Picnic and Bourse Night

*By Richard Jozefiak
ANA District Rep- AL*

The Madison County Coin Club (AL) held its first picnic and bourse night on Monday, June 25 outside of the Huntsville Senior Center. The first members arriving at the Huntsville Senior Center found it unexpectedly closed and locked. Making the best of the situation, a picnic was held outside with the members.

Over a dozen members and guests came. Members brought food to share with their fellow collectors on the warm summer's evening. A number of members brought coins to sell and trade.
