Thanks to Mike Campbell, we now have a bookcase to store our club reference material. Bring any coin related book materials that you would be willing to share with the coin club. The case can be locked for safe keeping.

This month's meeting is scheduled for 22 October. There has been some confusion with different dates being shown in the GO Magazine and older newsletters. I hope to see everyone on the 22nd.

MCCC's New Library Bookcase

By

Richard Jozefiak

At the September 24, 2013 meeting of the Madison County Coin Club, MCCC Treasurer Mike Campbell presented to club members the new Library Bookcase he built. Mike does woodwork, and built the new Library Bookcase to help the club display its numismatic book collection and make it easier for members to access and borrow books. Mike donated a lot of time building the new Library Bookcase.

The new Library Bookcase is in the Ceramics meeting room of the Huntsville Senior Center. The new Library Bookcase has a lock to secure the library books. The club reimbursed Mike for the cost of the materials. The club greatly appreciates the work Mike did.

Club members are encouraged to donate numismatic books to add to the club's library. The new Library Bookcase has a lot of shelf space for new books. To borrow any book, a club member only has to select the book and let the club president, Kurt Springfield, know the title.

"Numismatics, like some aspects of astronomy and natural history, remains a branch of learning in which the amateur can still do valuable work, and it is on the great collecting public, or rather on that part of which is interested in the subject at a scientific level, that the progress of numismatic science largely depends."

Philip Grierson - Professor of Numismatics, University of Cambridge
